The Make-Up Issue is a make-up and hairstyling private academy, founded by principal Abie Viljoen, that offers courses specifically designed to qualify students to become professionals in the industry. At The Make-Up Issue we are renowned for our international standard of training, and along with our team of experienced and currently active lecturers we offer students a learning experience that is invaluable. Our current film and fashion industry lecturers, incorporate the latest trends into their lectures and in doing so allow students regular opportunities to assist them at fashion shows, film productions and photo shoots. Our practical teaching methods is what sets our academy apart from other institutions and provides students with an authentic insight into the exciting and competitive industry. Through this experience they often get recruited by some of the top production companies and cosmetic houses in the country.
