A chain of 5 Thai Massage Studios has been set up with the view of covering Seapoint, Greenpoint, CBD, Century City and Newlands. The emphasis is however on personal supervision and care at all times. Thai massage is learnt in Thailand by all therapists with some local ladies trained by Thai staff in South Africa.

Employment of staff is sensitive and a mix of Thai and local in order to provide a good service and also provide employment opportunities for local South Africans. The studios operate between 10AM and 8pm with staff rotation ensuring staff do not exceed hours of work per day. Therapist are trained and encouraged to provide a relaxed atmosphere for clients who are in need of massage therapy. The most recent in The chain of Massage Studios was started by Nit Pothigul, a Thai born lady now living in South Africa for 10 years. Nit is a business women with a keen sense of providing a professional service to men, women and couples for relaxation and therapeutic needs. Nit has a great understanding of the massage market being Thai herself and a lover of massage too. Thai massage is both relaxing and therapeutic and is often required by sports people for injuries.
